

Antaira MSC-202AL Phase Out Notice

As of September 6, 2013, Antaira Technologies would like to inform you that we have discontinued the following product multiport serial card: MSC-202AL.

Due to a sudden discontinuation of a major component of the MSC-202AL by the ic manufacturer, Antaira has no option but to announce the phase out of this multiport serial card. Although this announcement will discontinue the product immediately, Antaira has already launched its replacement under the alternate model name, MSC-202AL1, as listed in the Phase in Model Info Table below.

Phase Out Model Info
Model Name	Description	Picture Reference
MSC-202AL	Low Profile 2-Port RS232 PCI Express Card
